

PROCLAMATION OF THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF PITKIN COUNTY, COLORADO HONORING

Howie Mallory

WHEREAS, Howie Mallory is a dedicated steward of our open spaces and public lands, who has spent the last 40-plus years volunteering for organizations and causes that advocate for and protect our natural resources and community character; and

WHEREAS, Howie Mallory is an astute observer who transforms his passions into action by strategically leading initiatives that will support our ecosystems, our access to wondrous landscapes and recreation, and our undeveloped lands for generations to come; and

WHEREAS, with a wry sense of humor, sharp wit and intelligence, Howie's gregarious personality and integrity inspires others to join in his mission to be a steward of this community's legacy - its place and its people. Howie brings a rooted in community and roll up your sleeves attitude to his service; and

WHEREAS, currently, Howie Mallory shares his time, insight, and consensus-building style with a breadth of boards including Pitkin County Open Space and Trails, City of Aspen Open Space and Trails, Tenth Mountain Hut Association, Aspen / Snowmass Nordic Council, and the Northwest Loan Fund. He has served on the boards of the Aspen Valley Land Trust, Aspen Center for Environmental Studies, Aspen Country Day School, and the City of Aspen Finance Committee and while running Community Banks of Colorado, started the Community Spotlight pieces for Aspen Public Radio; and

WHEREAS, at age 77, Howie Mallory recently helped found the Hunter Creek Historical Foundation, an organization committed to restoring and preserving the historic cabins of Hunter Creek.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT PROCLAIMED the Pitkin County Commissioners and the people of Pitkin County are honored to recognize Howie Mallory with the Pitkin County Cares "Environment" award.

Dated this 12th day of October 2021

County Manager

Jon Peacock

Pitkin County Board of County
Commissioners

Kelly McNicholas Kury - Chair